Information for the Professional Community

Alcoholics Anonymous has a long standing history of cooperation with the profession community that dates back to its inception in 1935.

Here are two pamphlets with general information about how AA continues that legacy.

To learn how that is happening today in the Reading-Berks AA community, reach out to the CPC/PI committee (Cooperation with the Professional Community/Public Information)

Below are several links for specific categories of professionals. To contact a representative at Reading-Berks Intergroup for details or additional information, please choose the appropriate committee from the Contact Us page.
