The Serenity Prayer

God, grant me serenity to accept things I cannot change, courage to change things I can, and wisdom to know the difference.

The AA Preamble

Alcoholics Anonymous is a fellowship of people who share their experience, strength and hope with each other that they may solve their common problem and help others to recover from alcoholism. The only requirement for AA membership is a desire to stop drinking. There are no dues or fees for AA membership; we are self-supporting through our own contributions. AA is not allied with

This page contains text information in a natural form, formatted for readability. It appears to be a guide or directory related to Alcoholics Anonymous meetings and activities, listing various groups, locations, and times. It is structured as a series of tables and lists, with some additional textual information interspersed. The layout is designed to provide clear and organized information about recovery meetings and support groups in the specified area. The content includes meeting times, locations, contact information, and descriptions of various groups and their activities. The text is straightforward and concise, typical of a guide intended for easy reference and distribution to individuals seeking recovery support.

The document is part of a larger collection of similar guides, which are likely used by AA members and potential attendees to find meetings that meet their needs. The structure and format of the text are consistent with the typical style of such guides, aimed at providing essential information in a clear and accessible manner.
